DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-15 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Objections

Claims 31 and 32 are identical claims both depending from claim 30, either one of the claims should be canceled or the claim dependency needs to be corrected.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter, which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 29, 37 and 39 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 29 recites the limitation "...the boom microphone..." in line 2, the claim depends from claim 28 which does not go back to a claim with the limitation of a boom microphone. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

In claims 37 and 39, "...lies at the same location..." is indefinite, it is unclear as to what is meant by the same location.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Bloomfield (5,224,474).

Regarding claim 15, Bloomfield discloses a microphone adapter (at 36) for a respirator (80) having a speech projector (at 36a), and an exhale diaphragm (Fig. 5), the adapter comprising a sound tube (38a) with a first open end designed to be located and held relative to the speech projector to receive speech therefrom at a point downstream of an exhale diaphragm and a second open end (based upon element 38a being a tube it inherently is open at two ends) designed to be coupled with a microphone (34) located outside and adjacent the respirator, , whereby, in use, speech is emanating from the speech projector is transmitted via the sound tube to the microphone (34).

Regarding claim 16, Bloomfield discloses a microphone box (note Fig. 5 in which the microphone is covered) in which the second open end of the sound tube terminates, said box being arranged to fit over a microphone located outside and adjacent the respirator and shield the microphone from any incident sound other than that received via the sound tube.

Regarding claim 18, note rejection of claim 15 above

Regarding claim 19, Bloomfield discloses wherein the respirator exhale diaphragm located in a region substantially in front of the mouth of a wearer of the respirator (Fig. 5), which diaphragm opens into the sound projector to leave a clear passage between the mouth of the wearer and the first open end of the sound tube (at 38b) when the wearer exhales during the speech process.

Regarding claim 27, note rejection of claim 15 above.

Regarding claim 28, note rejection of claim 16 above.

Regarding claim 30, Bloomfield discloses a respirator (80).

Regarding claim 31, note rejection of claim 16 above.

Regarding claim 32, note rejection of claim 16 above.

Regarding claim 33, note rejection of claim 19 above.

Regarding claim 34, Bloomfield discloses a resilient sound tube locator mounted on the first open end of the sound tube (Figs. 1, 5).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Claim 37 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bloomfield (5,224,474).

Bloomfield does not disclose the sound tube u-shaped and composed of semi-rigid material. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to have the sound tube U-shaped and composed of a semi-rigid material, since it has been held to be within the general skill of a worker in the art to select a known material on the basis of its suitability for the intended use as a matter of design consideration. In re Leshin, 227 F.2d 197, 125 USPQ 416.

Claims 20 and 34 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bloomfield (5,224,474) in view of Chen 5,279,286).

Bloomfield discloses the claimed invention except for the inner face seal internal of an outer layer. Chen in a respirator teaches an inner face seal (Figs. 1, 2). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to substitute the mask of Bloomfield to employ any well known respirator mask with an inner face seal which provides a better seal means as taught by Chen one mask for another as both mask are used in environmental areas where biological contamination is often encountered.

Regarding claim 34, note rejection of claim 20 above.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 21-26 are allowable over the prior art of record.

Claim 38 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
